

An Enema in a Size 12 Steel Toe Boot!

 sightedmoon.com/an-enema-in-a-size-12-steel-toe-boot/

By Joseph F. Dumond

July 13, 2012

(Extracted from News Letter 5848-020 & News Letter 5848-021)

23rd day of the 4th month 5848 years after the creation of Adam
The 4th Month in the Third year of the third Sabbatical Cycle
The Third Sabbatical Cycle of the 119th Jubilee Cycle
The Sabbatical Cycle of Earthquakes Famines, and Pestilences

This is also the end of the Sixteenth week of this the Third Tithing Year for the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow - Deuteronomy 26:12

July 14, 2012

Shabbat Shalom Brethren,

Many of you may want to postpone reading this News Letter until after Shabbat. I regret that I have to say the things I am about to say. But some of you are such dumb asses that you need a holy enema that is coming to you in a size 12 steel toe boot!

It has been an interesting week with the emails and conversations and the things that you have said. It has caused me to think and rethink why I am doing any of this and to come to understand just how frustrated Moses was with the Israelites; not that I am a Moses or anything like him. But frustrated I am indeed.

We read in Exodus 5;

Exo 5:1 And afterwards Mosheh and Aharon went in and said to Pharaoh, "Thus said Yehovah Elohim of Yisra'El, 'Let My people go, so that they keep a festival to Me in the wilderness.'" 2 And Pharaoh said, "Who is Yehovah, that I should obey His voice to let Yisra'El go? I do not know Yehovah, nor am I going to let Yisra'El go."

After this Pharaoh made things tougher for the Israelites by taking away the straw that he had provided for the brick making. And then the people reacted as we read further in chapter 5;

Exo 5:14 Also the foremen of the children of Yisra'El, whom Pharaoh's slave-drivers had set over them, were beaten and were asked, "Why have you not completed your task in making bricks both yesterday and today, as before?" 15 And the foremen of the children of Yisra'El came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you treat your servants this way? 16 "There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, 'Make bricks!' And see, your servants are beaten, but your own people are at fault." 17 But he said, "You are idle! You are idle! That is why you say, 'Let us go and slaughter to Yehovah.'" 18 "So now go, work. And straw is not given to you, but deliver the amount of bricks.” 19 And the foremen of the children of Yisra’El saw that they were in trouble after it was said, “You are not to diminish your daily amount of bricks.” 20 And when they came out from Pharaoh, they met Mosheh and Aharon who stood there to meet them. 21 And they said to them, “Let Yehovah look on you and judge, because you have made us loathsome in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, to give a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Then the confusion on Moses part is what we read next.

Exo 5:22 And Mosheh returned to Yehovah and said, “Yehovah, why have You done evil to this people? Why did You send me? 23 “For ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name, he has done evil to this people. And You have not delivered Your people at all.”

After this the Children of Israel witness the horrible events of the 10 plagues. They saw how they were preserved and how Egypt was destroyed and now they are standing at the shores of the Red Sea and revert back to the way they were, full of doubt.

Exo 14:10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Yisra’El lifted their eyes and saw the Mitsrites coming up after them. And they were greatly afraid, so the children of Yisra’El cried out to Yehovah. 11 And they said to Mosheh, “Did you take us away to die in the wilderness because there are no graves in Mitsrayim? What is this you have done to us, to bring us up out of Mitsrayim? 12 “Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Mitsrayim, saying, ‘Leave us alone and let us serve the Mitsrites?’ For it would have been better for us to serve the Mitsrites than to die in the wilderness.” 13 And Mosheh said to the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the deliverance of Yehovah, which He does for you today. For the Mitsrites whom you see today, you are never, never to see again. 14 “Yehovah does fight for you, and you keep still.” 15 And Yehovah said to Mosheh, “Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the children of Yisra’El, and let them go forward. 16 “And you, lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, and let the children of Yisra’El go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

We then read about the Israelites grumbling after they had witnessed the ten plagues and now they had just seen the parting of the Red Sea, but this was not enough they still complained;

Exo 16:2 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra’El grumbled against Mosheh and Aharon in the wilderness. 3 And the children of Yisra’El said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of Yehovah in the land of Mitsrayim, when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to satisfaction! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to put all this assembly to death with hunger.”

Brethren do you know, do you understand that Yehovah hears your grumbings and your evil words! Yes those things that you say. He hears them all.

Exo 16:11 And Yehovah spoke to Mosheh, saying, 12 “I have heard the grumbings of the children of Yisra’El. Speak to them,

And again and again we read about the Israelites fighting against Moses and Aaron;

Exo 17:1 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra'El set out on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin, according to the command of Yehovah, and camped in Rephid'im. And there was no water for the people to drink. 2 Therefore the people strove with Mosheh, and said, "Give us water to drink." And Mosheh said to them, "Why do you strive with me? Why do you try Yehovah?" 3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Mosheh, and said, "Why did you bring us out of Mitsrayim, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?" 4 Then Mosheh cried out to Yehovah, saying, "What am I to do with this people? Yet a little and they shall stone me!"

We then read about the mighty things that happened at Mount Sinai and all of Israel heard the voice of Yehovah. They actually heard Yehovah speak. How awesome and fantastic that would have been. After all of these things we then read about them building a golden calf.

Exo 32:1 And when the people saw that Mosheh was so long in coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together to Aharon, and said to him, "Arise, make us mighty ones who go before us. For this Mosheh, the man who brought us up out of the land of Mitsrayim, we do not know what has become of him." 2 And Aharon said to them, "Take off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me." 3 "And all the people took off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aharon. 4 And he took this from their hand, and he formed it with an engraving tool, and made a moulded calf. And they said, "This is your mighty one, O Yisra'El, that brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim!" 5 And Aharon saw and built an altar before it. And Aharon called out and said, "Tomorrow is a festival to Yehovah."

We can go on and on about the number of times the Israelites complained to Moses and how they paid for their rebellion by Yehovah sending them plagues and wars and He destroyed those who stood against Him from amongst the Israelites.

Many of you think you are so righteous now. Many of you consider yourselves god's gift to the world because you now know about the Sabbath and the Holy Days. Many of you can speak a few words in Hebrew and can even read Hebrew and this makes you now an authority. Many of you know the Messiah had a Jewish name and was called something other than Jesus.

But all of you bring with you the Mixed seed of the truth that you have just learned and the horses excrement that you learned in your former church life which you have just left, and you try to mix the two together and justify your former belief's with the New Truths you are now learning.

Some of you have been walking this Nazarene walk now for six months, a year, maybe two; and many of you are now authorities in all sorts of things and not afraid to speak out at all. And yet when you do you teach the false lies that you are supposed to have left behind.

Do you not know, do you not care what you were warned was coming is now here? Have you even considered that this may be speaking about you and that you are the one that is falling away? That is falling away from the truth of Torah.

2Th 2:1 As to the coming of our Master Yeshua Messiah and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, brothers, 2 not to become easily unsettled in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as if the day of Yeshua has come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way, because the falling away is to come first, and the man of lawlessness¹ is to be revealed, the son of destruction, Footnote: ¹Some texts read sin instead of lawlessness. This man might be the same one we read of in the prophecy in Isa. 14:12 – H'I'I ("Heileil"), meaning "the shining one," the sovereign of Babel. 4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called Elohim or that is worshipped, so that he sits as Elohim in the Dwelling Place of Elohim, showing himself that he is Elohim.

Paul also warned of this falling away from the truth when he wrote to Timothy;

1Ti 4:1 But the Spirit distinctly says that in latter times some shall fall away from the belief, paying attention to misleading spirits, and teachings of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having been branded on their own conscience, 3 forbidding to marry, saying to abstain from foods which Elohim created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

And the prophet Amos –

Amo 8:7 Yehovah has sworn by the Excellency of Ya'aqob, "I shall never forget any of their works. 8 "Shall the land not tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? And all of it shall swell like the River, heave and subside like the River of Mitsrayim. 9 "And it shall be in that day," declares the Master Yehovah, "that I shall cause the sun to go down at noon, and shall darken the earth on a day of brightness, 10 and shall turn your festivals into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation, and bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head, and shall make it like mourning for an only son, and its end like a day of bitterness. 11 "See, days are coming," declares the Master Yehovah, "that I shall send a hunger in the land, not a hunger for bread, nor a thirst for water, but for hearing the Words of Yehovah. 12 "And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east – they shall diligently search, seeking the Word of Yehovah, but they shall not find it¹. Footnote: ¹Jer. 5:13, Hos. 8:12, Ezek. 34:3-10. 13 "In that day the pretty maidens and strong young men shall faint from thirst, 14 those swearing by the guilt of Shomeron, who say, 'As your mighty one lives, O Dan!' and, 'As the way of Be'rsheba lives!' And they shall fall and never rise again."

So before Messiah's Second Coming a GREAT APOSTASY or simply put, FALLING AWAY OF FROM THE TRUTH is prophesied to take place. Even though the Israelites saw all the marvelous events before during and after the Exodus they still rebelled; and now even though many of you have seen the truth of the Torah and been so excited to read it and to learn all the marvelous things you have learned you have now turned back to the way you were before you had your exodus from the churches that oppressed you.

I am searching for a right way to say what I am about to say and I am angry about what has gone on. So I am just going to say it, damn the torpedoes and full steam ahead.

You dumb ass, stupid foolish self-righteous, Ephramites, you have learned a little Torah and a few Hebrew words and now you go around condemning everyone else who does not think like you now do. People look at you and they know you're still a drunkard because they hear your words that you speak and they are slurred. The world you are trying to convert sees your lack of love and concern for others and says I will not join that group because of this imbecile.

You try to convert the Jewish people to become Christians and yet your hypocrisy is all over your face and you are a joke to them. You have no clue what the Torah says at all yet you insist on converting the Jew and this you try to do only after walking this walk for less than a year in some cases. How pathetic how absolutely sad.

This is Christian teaching; a false Christian teaching to convert the Jew. It is the Torah ignorant Christian that needs to be converted to the Torah. Then and only then will you be able to at least talk intelligently to a Torah observant Jew. And now that some of you walk this walk for a year or two or less you now want to convert the Jew? You continue with the false teaching you learned before. Why do you not want to convert the other Christians who do not keep Torah? Why do you not do this first?

You have no clue, none. Do you not know or even understand what the parable about the Prodigal son is? Are you that stupid?

Who is the one that was the dumb ass? IT WAS AND IS YOU; not Judah! You are the one who just last year was praying to the rosary or bowing down to statutes and worshiping all kinds of other gods. It is you who even today say Mother Nature is upset when you have to talk about the severe heat or the floods that you are dealing with. You have no clue that you are insulting Yehovah by giving credit to a god that is not a god but Satan imposing as a god. No clue!!

It was YOU who just a few years ago was keeping Sunday and would not for the life of you consider the Sabbath.

You are that prodigal son; who since you were in the womb of Rachel worshipped the idols of Laban and you still do today. Yet you dare to call our Brother Judah (an) antichrist because they do not believe in Jesus.

You stupid people!!! Have you even considered the examples of those who worship Jesus put forward? They are the same ones Christians have shown our brother Judah ever since the Christians became the state religion of Constantine in 313 C.E.

Those who call Judah an antichrist are the same as those who over the centuries have killed millions of Jews. The exact same people. Your words can murder.

You hypocritical Ephramites, you disgust me. You say to our brother Judah they need to convert to following Jesus or now you say Yehshua and then you quote like this one supposedly called brother says who justifies calling Jews antichrists based on the following and I quote what he wrote in his email.

‘That is only based on the fact that scripture does say that:

“he that denies the Son also does not believe the Father. He that confesses the Son confesses also the Father” (1 John 2:23) and “many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist” (2 John 1:7), and of course Yeshua’s own words: “no one comes to the Father except through Me” (John 14:6).’

Yes Judah has seen the ‘Christian love’ throughout all of these centuries.

Because you Ephramites are so thick headed I am going to list them all for you. READ THEM and tell me how this Christian love being shown here is going to help convert the Jew!!!

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pogrom>

Pogroms against Jews

A pogrom (Russian) was a violent riot against Jews, condoned by law enforcement, in the 19th- and early 20th- century in the Russian Empire, characterized by killings and destruction of Jewish homes and properties, businesses, and religious centers. The term has been subsequently been extended to refer to certain similar attacks against Jews in other times and places, and to certain attacks against other ethnic or religious groups. A similar term is “genocidal massacre”.^{[2][3][4]}

Significant pogroms in the Russian Empire included the Odessa pogroms, Warsaw pogrom (1881), Kishinev pogrom (1903), Kiev Pogrom (1905) and the Biaystok pogrom (1906). Other anti-Jewish events described as pogroms include the Lwów pogrom (1918), and Kiev Pogroms (1919). The most significant pogrom in Nazi Germany was the Kristallnacht of 1938, in which at least 91 Jews were killed, a further 30,000 arrested and incarcerated in concentration camps,^[5] over 1,000 synagogues burned, and over 7,000 Jewish businesses destroyed or damaged.^{[6][7]} Notorious pogroms of World War II included the 1941 Farhud in Iraq, the Iași pogrom in Romania – in which over 13,200 Jews were killed – and the Jedwabne pogrom in Poland. Post-World War II pogroms included the 1945 Tripoli pogrom, the 1946 Kielce pogrom, and the 1947 Aleppo pogrom.

Roman

Philo witnessed and described the Alexandrian pogroms against Jews in Alexandria in 38 CE.

Medieval

Massive violent attacks against Jews date back at least to the Crusades such as the Pogrom of 1096 in France and Germany (the first “Christian” pogroms to be officially recorded), as well as the massacres of Jews at London and York in 1189–1190.

During the Golden age of Jewish culture in Spain, beginning in the 9th century, Islamic Spain was more tolerant towards Jews.[23] The 11th century, however, saw several Muslim pogroms against Jews; notably those that occurred in Cordoba in 1011 and in Granada in 1066.[24] In the 1066 Granada massacre, the first large pogrom on European soil, a Muslim mob crucified the Jewish vizier Joseph ibn Naghrela and massacred about 4,000 Jews[25] In 1033 about 6,000 Jews were killed in Fez, Morocco by Muslim mobs.[26][27] Mobs in Fez murdered thousands of Jews in 1276,[28] and again, leaving only 11 alive, in 1465.[28][29]

In Europe in 1348, because of the hysteria surrounding the Black Plague, Jews were massacred by Christians in Chillon, Basle, Stuttgart, Ulm, Speyer, Dresden, and Mainz. By 1351, 60 major and 150 smaller Jewish communities had been destroyed.[30] A large number of the surviving Jews fled to Poland, which was very welcoming to Jews at the time.[31]

In 1506, after an episode of famine and bad harvests, an enormous pogrom happened in Lisbon, Portugal,[32] in which more than 500 “New-Christian” (forcibly converted Jews) people were slaughtered and/or burnt by an angry Christian mob, in the first night of what became known as the “Pogrom of Lisbon” or “Lisbon’s great massacre of 1506”.^[citation needed] The killing continued for almost a week, almost eliminating the entire Jewish or Jewish-descendant community residing in that city. Even the Portuguese military and the king himself had difficulty stopping it. The event is today remembered with a monument in S. Domingos’ church.

Tens of thousands of Jews were massacred by Cossacks in Ukraine during the Khmelnytsky Uprising of 1648–1657,[33] and thousands more during the Koliyivshchyna in 1768-1769.

19th century

Pogroms against Jews known as the Hep-Hep riots began on August 2, 1819 in Würzburg, Germany and soon reached as far as regions of Denmark, Poland, Latvia and Bohemia. Many Jews were killed and much Jewish property was destroyed.[34]

The 1821 Odessa pogroms marked the start of the nineteenth century wave of pogroms in the Russian empire, with further pogroms in Odessa in 1859. However, the period 1881-1884 was a peak period, with over 200 anti-Jewish events occurred in the Russian Empire, notably Kiev, Warsaw and Odessa.

There were pogroms too in the nineteenth century in the Arab and Islamic worlds. There was a massacre of Jews in Baghdad in 1828.[35] There was another massacre in Barfurush in 1867. [35] In 1839, in the eastern Persian city of Meshed, a mob burst into the Jewish Quarter, burned the synagogue, and destroyed the Torah scrolls. This is known as the Allahdad incident. It was only by forcible conversion that a massacre was averted.[36]

The Damascus affair occurred in 1840, when an Italian monk and his servant disappeared in Damascus. Immediately following, a charge of ritual murder was brought against a large number of Jews in the city. All were found guilty. The consuls of England, France and Austria as well as Ottoman authorities, Christians, Muslims and Jews all played a great role in this affair.[37]

Early 20th century

Russian Empire

Many pogroms accompanied the post-1917 period of the Russian Civil War: an estimated 70,000 to 250,000 civilian Jews were killed throughout the former Russian Empire; the number of Jewish orphans exceeded 300,000. In his book 200 Years Together, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn provides these numbers from Nahum Gergel's 1951 study of the pogroms in Ukraine: out of an estimated 1,236 incidents of anti-Jewish violence, 887 mass pogroms occurred, the remainder being classified as "excesses" not assuming mass proportions. Of the pogroms, about 40% were perpetrated by the Ukrainian forces led by Symon Petliura, 25% by the Ukrainian Green Army and various Ukrainian nationalist gangs, 17% by the White Army, especially the forces of Anton Denikin. A further 8.5% of Gergel's total figure is attributed to pogroms carried out by men of the Red Army – although these pogroms were not sanctioned by the Red Army leadership, and where Red Army troops had perpetrated pogroms, the Bolshevik high command subsequently disarmed entire regiments and executed individual pogromists to deter further outbreaks.[38][39]

There were exceptions, however, as related by author and future Nobel laureate Ivan Bunin. On May 15, 1919, Bunin wrote in his diary,

"Members of the Red Army in Odessa led a pogrom against the Jews in the town of Big Fountain. Ovsyaniko-Kulikovsky and the writer Kipen happened to be there and told me the details. Fourteen commissars and thirty Jews from among the common people were killed. Many stores were destroyed. The soldiers tore through the night, dragged the victims from their beds, and killed whomever they met. People ran into the steppe or rushed into the sea. They were chased after and fired upon — a genuine hunt, as it were. Kipen saved himself by accident — fortunately he had spent the night not in his home, but at the White Flower sanatorium. At dawn, a detachment of Red Army soldiers appeared 'Are there any Jews here?' they asked the watchman. 'No, no Jews here.' 'Swear what you're saying is true!' The watchman swore, and they went on farther. Moisei Gutman, a cabby, was killed. He was a dear man who moved us from our dacha last fall." [40]

Gergel's overall figures, which are generally considered conservative, are based on the testimony of witnesses and newspaper reports collected by the Mizрах-yidish historiche arkhiv, which was first based in Kiev, then Berlin and later New York. The English version of Gergel's article was published in English in 1951 in the YIVO Annual of Jewish Social Science titled "The Pogroms in the Ukraine in 1918-1921" [41]

Outside Russia

Pogroms spread throughout Central and Eastern Europe. Anti-Jewish riots also broke out elsewhere in the world.

In the 1911 Tredegar riot in Wales, Jewish homes and businesses were looted and burned over the period of a week, before the British army was called in by then-Home Secretary Winston Churchill, who described the riot as a "pogrom". [42]

In the Lwów pogrom (1918), 72 Jews were killed and 443 injured by Polish troops, militia and civilians.[43][44][45][46][47]

In the Americas, there was a pogrom in Argentina in 1919, during the Tragic Week[48]

In 1919, pogroms were reported in several cities in Poland.[49]

During the Holocaust

Pogroms were also encouraged by the Nazis, especially early in the war before the larger mass killings began. The first of these pogroms was Kristallnacht in Nazi Germany, often called Pogromnacht, in which at least 91 Jews were killed, a further 30,000 arrested and incarcerated in concentration camps,[5] over 1,000 synagogues burned, and over 7,000 Jewish businesses destroyed or damaged.[6][7]

A number of pogroms occurred during the Holocaust at the hands of non-Germans. Perhaps the deadliest of these Holocaust-era pogroms was the Iași pogrom in Romania, in which as many as 13,266 Jews were killed by Romanian citizens, police, and military officials.[50]

On 1–2 June 1941, the two-day Farhud pogrom in Iraq, in which “rioters murdered between 150 and 180 Jews, injured 600 others, and raped an undetermined number of women. They also looted some 1,500 stores and homes”.[51][52]

In the city of Lwow, some Ukrainian police along with occupying Nazis organized two large pogroms in June–July, 1941, in which around 6,000 Jews were murdered,[53] in alleged retribution for the collaboration of some Jews with the Soviet regime and the large number of communists who happened to be of Jewish descent (see The Lviv pogroms controversy (1941)).

In Lithuania, some Lithuanian police led by Algirdas Klimaitis and the Lithuanian partisans — consisting of LAF units reinforced by 3,600 deserters from 29th Lithuanian Territorial Corps of the Red Army[54] engaged in anti-Jewish pogroms in Kaunas along with occupying Nazis. On 25–26 June 1941 about 3,800 Jews were killed and synagogues and Jewish settlements burned.[55]

During the Jedwabne pogrom of July 1941, some non-Jewish Poles burned at least 340 Jews in a barn-house (final findings of the Institute of National Remembrance) in the presence of Nazi German Ordnungspolizei. The role of the German Einsatzgruppe B remains the subject of debate.[56][57][58][59][60][61]

After World War II

After the end of World War II, a series of violent anti-Semitic incidents occurred throughout Europe, particularly in the Soviet-liberated East, where most of the returning Jews came back after liberation by the Allied Powers, and where the Nazi propagandists had extensively promoted the notion of a Jewish-Communist conspiracy (see Anti-Jewish violence in Poland, 1944–1946 and Anti-Jewish violence in Eastern Europe, 1944–1946). Anti-Jewish riots also took place in Britain in 1947.

In the Arab world, there were a number of pogroms which played a key role in the massive emigration from Arab countries to Israel.

Anti-Jewish rioters killed over 140 Jews in the 1945 Tripoli pogrom.

The 1945 Cairo pogrom marked the start of a series of violent acts against Egypt's Jews.

Half of Aleppo's 10,000 Jews left the city in the wake of the 1947 Aleppo pogrom.

The 1947 Aden pogrom brought to an end the existence of Aden's almost two-thousand-year-old Jewish community.

The 1948 Oujda and Jerada pogrom and 1954 Petitjean pogrom were pogroms in Morocco.

[62]

The 1991 Crown Heights Riot in Brooklyn, New York has been referred to as a "pogrom" by persons such as Rudy Giuliani[63] and the New York Times columnist A. M. Rosenthal.[64]

Should I even tell you about the Jews in the Maccabean days, who on the Sabbath and also during the Sabbatical years; when the Christians were attacking them, yes they were the pagan Christian faith at that time too, the same false gods were worshiped by the Romans and the Syrian which today Christian now worship; these Jews would not go out to fight on the Sabbath or the Sabbatical years. They would instead go out and proclaim that they would rather die than profane the Sabbath and then hold out their necks to make it easier for the enemy to kill them. And they too were slaughtered.

How many of you dumb ass Ephramites would have done this., How many of you would have endured for weeks or months let alone for years and centuries and thousands of years the persecution that Judah has gone through at the hands of so called Christians? We are about to find out very very soon just how many of you will keep the faith or convert to whatever religion is about to persecute you and even kill you and your family. Then we will see if you believe or not.

Judah is the elder brother in the parable of prodigal son. They have been with the Father the whole time, and paid dearly for keeping the faith, but not you Ephraim, you were out being drunk and whoring around and blowing the blessings that the Father gave you in the first place. And now after coming back to the truth you presume to condemn Judah for not converting to the false religion that you have demonstrated for the past 2700 years? Hypocrites!!!!

Did Yehshua not say;

Mat 15:24 And He answering, said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'El."

Judah is part of the House of Israel but Judah was not lost. Judah knew their Elohim but the ten tribes of Israel were worshiping stones and wood statutes and truly were lost.

We also read in Mat 10:5 Yeshua sent these twelve out, having commanded them, saying, "Do not go into the way of the gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Shomeronites, Mat 10:6 but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'El.

The Apostles went to the Lost Tribes. They did not go to Judah.

I am not saying Judah is perfect. No, they too have sins to repent of also. But it is not going to be idol worshiping Ephramites that will perfect Judah.

You want to convert Judah, you want to save the poor Jew? Then shut your evil speaking, lashon hara mouth. Stop that tongue of yours from spreading any more evil. Just plain shut up. Period.

Yehshua said to let your light shine.

Mat 5:14 "You are the light of the world. It is impossible for a city to be hidden on a mountain. 15 "Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it shines to all those in the house. 16 "Let your light so shine before men, so that they see your good works and praise your Father who is in the heavens.

The only time a light is noisy is when it is about to go out. Keep your mouths shut and let everyone see your good fruits, and not hear about what a good person you are. Because you are the only one that thinks your good.

Ephraim, Judah has been through many holocausts. But you are about to begin one that is going to wipe out 90% of you. In a few short years millions upon millions of you will be dead and not buried. You are about to become food for the birds. Instead of calling Judah names and trying to convert them, by your lofty superior intelligence, do you not think you had better get your idol worshiping house cleaned up first? You still bring with you the false Christian ideologies that lead you astray and you mix them in with the truth and cannot even tell the difference. What a shame.

Judah is your brother, give them some room, the same as they give you room in spite of the many offensive things you do on a daily basis.

You know we look at the Edomites and say they have a knife at everyone's throat; but do we even consider the hypocrisy that we do. We stab each and every one that is professing to keep the faith in the back. We tear down each other and back bite those in leadership and do not build up those who are learning.

I have emails from leaders around the world who are worn out from the fighting going on amongst the brethren. From the brethren attacking them and not studying for themselves. I have one from Asia that came in today.

And like them I wonder why I am even doing this knowing that a number of you will write to condemn me for standing with Judah.

YOU are cursed with a curse and you cannot remove the blemish that is on your face.

This week we are going to study the 3rd Commandment. Those of you who now believe you are the children of Yehovah ought to take special notice.

Exo 20:7 “You do not bring¹ the Name of Yehovah your Elohim to naught, for Yehovah does not leave the one unpunished who brings His Name to naught. Footnote: ¹Or lift up, or take.

Those of you who are supposed to be walking this walk and are now called the children of Elohim will not go unpunished if you are attacking each other and Judah or being a drunk or committing lashon hara speaking with your evil tongue. And I have not even touched on those who are stuffing your faces and weigh far too much or those who still are doing drugs whether legal or not or those who are still having affairs with others or are into reading about affairs or are into gossip and spreading it around or those still into conspiracy teachings. No I have not even touched on the many other stupid things that Ephramites put forward as a religion. Many of you have turned food into your newest religion and others have turned the conspiracy teachings into the religion you are putting forward.

Last week we wrote about Abrahams deep sleep and the terrible darkness that came over him. I am now wondering if that darkness is not because of the brethren who are too busy doing other wrong things to actually have time to let their light shine.

Luk 18:7 “And shall Elohim not do right by all means to His own chosen ones who are crying out day and night to Him, and being patient over them? ⁸ “I say to you that He shall do right to them speedily. But when the Son of Adam comes, shall He find the belief on the earth?”

Will Yehshua find faith on this earth when He returns? Why would he ask such a question? Because it is in doubt.

It is time to grow up and stop acting like 3 years olds. Stop condemning those Jews who keep torah, stop back biting those teaching Torah to Christians, and stop hurting the brethren with your self-righteous conceited ways.

Start to let that light shine so that when Yehshua does come He will find some faith. Abraham asked if Sodom could be saved if He could find 10 righteous. And as you know Sodom was not saved. The Darkness of Satan ruler ship is coming and the question remains will your faith shine fourth or has it already gone out and you are part of that great falling away but do not yet know it.

It is time to get serious about your faith, it is time to grow up.

I've now included responses from our readers concerning the above newsletter:

News Letter 5848-021
July 21, 2012

Shabbat Shalom Brethren,

After I posted last week's Newsletter I was expecting a response like the first one I have posted, but I did not expect the number of encouraging ones that I did receive. So I am humbled to know that it is not just me that sees this evil amongst us. And I do want to thank you all for writing.

Here are a number of the responses that wrote in. I have not mentioned those I received in person or by phone. I do appreciate your views and I do thank you all for writing.

Am I the only one appalled and saddened by this? I understand the frustration Joseph Dumond is feeling, but his hypocritical foul mouthed tirade wins absolutely NO ONE over nor brings about conviction to those who need it. If he was trying to reach those in error, calling them "stupid," "idiots," "dumb asses" and such things is not the way to do it. If he is just trying to vent his frustrations to those who believe as he does, then he is still in the wrong. Either way he is just as hypocritical as those he's yelling at. We are to be known by our love. "Brethren do you know, do you understand that Yehovah hears your grumblings and your evil words! Yes those things that you say. He hears them all." YES, Joseph, Abba hears those hateful, demeaning words you are saying to His children. "You dumb ass, stupid foolish self-righteous, Ephramites, you have learned a little Torah and a few Hebrew words and now you go around condemning everyone else who does not think like you now do." Do I need to even explain the irony of this statement? Joseph Dumond is doing this exact thing- only he's condemning those who believe as he does. Maybe if he was a babe in following Yeshua, I could've avoided writing this altogether and just moved on. But he's not. He's evidently been at this longer than most so I would expect him to know how to be led by the Ruach in choosing his words and not be led by his flesh and saying the first thing that popped into his head. With the enemy working overtime these days to divide & destroy us, should we be aiding and abetting him with newsletters like this?! How in ANY WAY is that post edifying to the body of Mashiach? How is that in ANY WAY representing the Elohim we serve? How is that a reflection of the Light that is in us?! My heart is sad. Annie Stanfield

I do respect the views of those who do not agree with me and I do listen to what they also say. Here are some others;

Well said brother this was necessary indeed it needed saying thank you for having the guts to do so may Yah bless you and keep you in His Perfect Shalom

Mahdoks Walter

Sent from my BlackBerry® wireless device

Joseph,

I want to tell you that while I may have been more diplomatic, (not a slam against you, just my personality), I agree whole-heartedly with your assessment concerning those who wish to convert Judah. Far too many of us who have come out of the Christian churches feel as if we are among the set-apart of Elohim and need to bring those apostate Jews into line. The thing I have been taught since becoming a 'believer' is that YHWH will be the one to bring Judah in line as well as the rest of us. It is the Ruach ha Kodosh who is the one who will "convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgement" and "when He, the Ruach comes, He will guide you into all the truth..." . Far too many new believers feel they are the Holy Spirit and they need to do His work. Once again, kudos, and while I may disagree with you on some things I know you are a man who seeks to do the will of YHWH. Just a side note; thanks for making me aware of Dr. Perry.

Shalom Uvrachah
Richard & Rhonda

Good job Joe, we get frustrated also with these people.

YHWH BLESS YOU AND KEEP YOU ON THIS WONDERFULL DAY OF SHABBAT.

Shabbat Shalom
BaruchEl
Duane Barkel

Shalom Joe ,

I am one who receives your emails. You may or may not know me . I am from Adelaide and hosted your friend Avi when he was here in Adelaide Australia.

Thank you for your absolutely correct assessment of most who have come out of Christendom only to continue with the same idolatry under a different name .

Thank you for your boldness .

Shalom
Jay

You are trying to bare too much responsibility that is not yours. Your passion is to teach us. You cannot MAKE us learn. Was that a light I just read? When YHWH said it is only a remnant, no matter how much scolding you do, it will still be just a remnant. There WILL be a falling away. Take comfort in Isaiah's words when he tells us that YHWH said HE will sieve all the grains of Israel from the four corners of the earth AND NOT ONE GRAIN WILL FALL TO THE GROUND. Did you hear that? Not even one. YHWH's will be thine my brother. I love you.

Hi Joseph,

Kudos for your rant against those who condemn the Jews! I've attached a 39 page paper that provides 92 biblical and historical reasons why the Jews are still God's special messengers to the nations. If you find any errors, please let me know. Feel free to share with your audience if you wish.

Shabbat shalom,
Gerald Brown, Ed.D.

I have read this report from Mr. Brown and it is very good. If you want a copy write me and I can forward you on to him.

Hello Brother Joseph!

Just read your latest newsletter and I wanted to thank you for the new insight regarding taking His name in vain. It never occurred to me that it was about our light and our bearing fruit IN HIS NAME! You explained it very well. We are ambassadors for Him and carry His Name. We are to be like His Son and shine brightly for Him.....not cast a bad light on His Name and Work. I think I need to do a little study on light.....it can be good or bad....true or false. This 3rd Commandment has now forever been infinitely expanded for me.....thanks to you and His Spirit which revealed it thru you.

Blessings to you my Brother.

In Yahshua's Name,
Jake Harmina

PS I totally get your frustration regarding self-righteous fools with a bit of book/head knowledge but totally lacking love and humility. I have left several organizations now because of this religious spirit....it is not of our Elohim. It is the main reason that I don't belong to any group anymore nor fellowship in person that much.

Your trials are ordained and are being used to purify you. Remember to chastise in love. Take care. J.

Very good commentary/teaching on the 3rd Commandment.

B'Shalom,

Sandie B.

Greeting Joe,

Your tone was harsh, your words course and your obvious frustration boiling over but, because I am not privy to what you were subjected to I will not reprove or comment. This very week I was assailed by a somewhat similar offence so I understand, to a tiny degree, your aggravation. Sometimes I just take a deep breath and let all that fall on the strong shoulders of the Messiah.

Anyway, I'm writing to give you my view on your assessment of Judah and the prodigal son parable. Yes, Judah is the faithful, older son but he is angry and jealous (vs 28) and has missed his Father's greatest gift – John 3:16-18.

You wrote: "Did Yehshua not say;

Mat 15:24 And He answering, said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'?!."

Judah is part of the House of Israel but Judah was not lost."

Yahshua did not say “lost tribes” but “lost sheep” and so we can’t suppose they are one and the same. The lost sheep of the house of Israel he is referring to is Judah, otherwise, in Matthew 5, he would have sent out the twelve to the 10 tribes in the Gentile nations and certainly the Samaritans had people of the 10 tribes. In verse 17 he warns them “they will deliver you up to councils and scourge you in their synagogues.” Did the lost tribes have synagogues? And in verse 23 he tells them, “When they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.” Many scriptures point out that Yahshua came to the Jews, the circumcision.

Ro 15:8 Now I say that Yahshua Messiah was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

Joh 1:11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

Ac 3:25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Yahshua, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

Act 13: 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. 46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

Joh 10:16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

I respectfully disagree with you that Judah is lost. Not lost in the same sense as the lost tribes but they certainly are lost sheep.

Rom 11:7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded 8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

Read all chapter 11 of Romans and see how Paul yearns to save the Jews.

Next is a very important passage.

Ro 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: 27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

The New Covenant was only with the lost sheep of the house of Judah and the house of Israel (Jer 31:31, Heb 8:8). Only those who accept Yahshua (come through the door of his flesh) are now considered by Yahweh to be Israelites. My scriptural study on this is a bit lengthy so I won’t burden you with it here but it verifies what Paul wrote above, that “all Israel shall be saved.”

So, don't take the abuse or bickering to heart but let Yahweh's comforting spirit ease your anger and persuade you not to question your work but encourage you to carry on with your service and let Him deal with the abuse.

Shalom,

David Smith
Nova Scotia

Shabbat Shalom Joseph. Sound off some more brother. Definitely got my attention. Captivating reading. I know I need more of this method of teaching. Praise YHVH, May He continue to Bless you. 3rd Command Study Awesome too. Thank you for all you do, and put up with.

Jackie Russo

Be Strong, Be Brave and Continue to do the work you were called to do....Don't be discouraged and Know that Yahweh is with you !!

Louis Moreno

I am certainly guilty of some of this, and was just saying to a friend the other day, how I have heard many many people complain about the HRM people. I said to this friend, "It is the Torah observers who are also so hateful to the brethren." She called them Torah Terrorists. I agreed. Joseph Dumond is right. I have seen many people online in particular who are supposed 'Torah Observant' Believers and they can be so incredibly hateful with scathing words to those who don't know 'as much.' Right on Joseph Dumond. Right on Brother.

Vicki Brady

Done as only Joe can do and get away with it! Thanks Joe!

Mary Horn

Shalom Brother Joseph,

I must thank you for writing now about the "Third Commandment". I was able to read these pages to and with my family here. Today it was given to me that it is much more about it then only read and know it. We really have to repent deeply these sins of bringing His awesome Name to naught and so I did ask for forgiveness for me and my whole family tribe. It is so much to repent having read your News Letters with so much insight. The blessing is upon you and of course also the wild attacks of the enemy. Don't be too much upset and frustrated. May YHWH refill you with His patience and mercy for the children of Israel.

Without His doing nobody can turn back his being.

Great blessings to you and thanks for what you are able to do in His Name.

Marie-Louise

Shalom Joseph,

It sounds like Pinchas has gotten under your skin.

Are you still coming over for Succot?

Blessings,

Ephraim

Brethren I was very upset last week with the comments I had received prior to that News Letter. And yes I sounded off. I make no apologies for that. In just over one weeks' time will be the 9th of Av. A cursed day for all of Israel. But far too many believe it is just for the Jews. Never the less look at what has happened on this day in history and consider those things I said last week about how Christian degradation of the Jews does result in their deaths and how we must not be a part of it at all. Taken from a Newsletter by Rabbi Aminidav Ben Avraham Hinton.

Are you aware of the fact that this message of the Sabbatical years was revealed to me in the summer of 2005 and I first preached about it at the Feast a couple months later? 40 years later will be the beginning of the 7th Millennium, the Jubilee year 2045. Think about this and how Yehovah's timing is in everything. He does nothing without first revealing it to his prophets. And a prophet is anyone who speaks His Torah.

HISTORY OF THE DAY:

1. The original generation rescued from Egypt would die in the desert and was deprived from entering the promise land because of the sons of the spies-Num 13.14- That Parashah Shelach happened on the 9th of Av. 1407 BCE.
2. The destruction of the First Temple happened on the 9th of Av by the Babylonians in 586 BCE. In the fifth month, on the 7th day of the month came Nebuzaradan and he burned the house of Hashem. 2 Kings 25.8-9.
3. The destruction of the Second Temple-took place on the 9th of Av by the Romans in the year 70 CE.

4. The Gemara relates that Turnus Rufus, a Roman Officer, plowed the area of the Temple under. Maimonides added: That all the homes in Jerusalem were likewise ploughed under on the 9th of Av. After the second temple was destroyed.
5. Another time in 135 CE. The Jews rebelled against Roman rule under the false raved Messiah under Rabbi Akiva: Simon Bar Kochba and were destroyed by Hadrian in the battle of Batar-This happened on the 9th of Av.
6. The Jews revolted against Roman occupation in a war that began in 66 CE and ended at Masada in 73 CE. Approximately 1,300,000 of Yisra'EL's, 2 million Jews were murdered or starved to death during this time. This was the fulfillment of the prophecy of Zech 13.8, in which two thirds of Yisra'EL's population would be destroyed. This happened on the 9th of Av.
7. The first time that Jews were forced into a ghetto (stetl) was in Rome, on the 9th of Av in 1555 CE.
8. The Nazi Reinhard Heydrick was ordered to carry out the Final Solution (a euphemism for the murder of the European Jewish population) on July 31, 1941. The following night, as his orders were going into effect, was the 9th of Av.
9. On the 9th of Av 1942, the deportations from the Warsaw Ghetto to the Treblinka Death Camp Begin.
10. 1914-1st world war began on the 9th of Av. Britain and Russia declared war on Germany. This was the beginning of World War 1. The unresolved issues of the First World War led to World War 2, and to the Holocaust.
11. The Christian Crusades took place in 1096-1099 on the 9th of Av. The first Crusade captured Jerusalem on July, 1099. Thousands of Jews were called Christ-killers and killed on this day. There were 10 crusades in killing the estimate of Europe's 30-50 percent of Jews.

Lasting from 1095 through 1291- over 200 years.

12. The expulsion of the Jews from England happened on the 9th of Av in the year 1190. The entire Jewish population of York England, was massacred on that day, the victims of the first known example of the infamous "Blood Libel" the claim that Jews used the blood of Christian children as part of their religious rites (This Christian lie, no one used Tora to prove Jews cannot use blood of human beings in religious services) On Tish B'AV,

? King Edward 1. signed the order banishing all Jews from England. Four days before it went into effect, the expulsion order of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella set a deadline on Tish B'Av for their final departure from Warsaw. 150 Jews were murdered this day.

13. The expulsion of the Jews from Spain-happened on the 9th of Av in the year 1492-1496. The only other alternative for the Jews was Death or Converting to Christianity.

14. The Talmud is burned in Paris by Catholic Scholars in 1242. In 1236 a Jewish Convert named Nicholas Donin testified before Pope Gregory the fifth (1170-1241) that the Talmud was heretical and blasphemous. As a result, Gregory condemned the Talmud, officially instructing the Kings and Church leaders of Europe to expose its secrets. King Louis the fifth of France (1214-1270) was the only monarch to respond to the Popes call. On June 25, 1240, a public date commenced in Paris that was, in fact, a trial. Nicholas Donin, now a Franciscan (He went back to Christianity), acted as prosecutor and a Jewish Rabbi (when he was a Christian) as defendant. They burned all the Jewish books as well as Talmud in 1242 on the 9th of Av. The mountain of books was so high that it took a day and a half for them to burn.
15. On the 9th of Av in 1994, the deadly bombing of the AMIA (A Jewish community center in Buenos Aires) took place, which resulted in the killing of 86 Jewish people and the wounding of 300 others.
16. In 2005 Nine Thousand Jewish Settlers were forced out of their homes, by land sell deals and Muslim ownership of portions of the land of Yisra'EL. These Jews were forced from Gaza on the 9th of AV.