Sighted Moon News Letter 5843-041 1353

19th day of the Ninth month 5843 After Creation

December 1, 2007

Shabbat Shalom Family,

1) For the past month I have been working out of town. We have had freezing rain, black ice, blizzards followed by snow packed and ice packed roads. White outs, where the road and all visibility disappears, and you have to use the trees and telephone poles to guide you along. Going along at 100 klm, and then you run into the white out, and can't see a thing.

You want to stop but if you do, you know the guy behind you is going to run into you. If you don't stop you know the guy in front of you, might have already stopped. It is white knuckle weather for sure. It has just taken me four hours to drive the normal 2 hours home. This week we had over 800 accidents within a couple of hours. Then two days later we had over 200 in just morning rush hour.

Four elderly ladies coming home from church were killed when a van was blown into their lane and hit them. The wind again blew a van from the side and it went into the oncoming lane and killed a lady just up the road from us. Winter has come to Southern Ontario.

I had the time this week to watch Larry King Live on CNN. He was interviewing 6 TV evangelists on the extravagant life style they lived. I watched and found myself getting very mad. These shepherds are fleecing the flocks. These hired hands are lining their own pockets.

But as I watch the report I see the people. They are all trying to do what they have been taught. They want to worship the Creator of all things. They get themselves worked up and are teary eyed as they pray to their god.

These groups have 25,000 out at a Sunday meeting. 250,000 on the TV listening. And the Leadership are lying through their teeth to the people. These sanctimonious, self-righteous, bags of wind. I could just punch their lights out.

Brethren this really irks me.

Others who have learned the truth and are being taught it, sit in their comfortable pews and put up their feet, thinking they have made it. We are the only true Church they say, and everyone else is going to hell in a hand basket. They call all these other groups pagan and forget that they too were once at these other groups being lied to by the leader they adored.

I know who I am. I know I am no more than any of you. I know my past and I know I can return to it. I also know that for someone like me to put out those things on this site and teach them to anyone willing to read is nothing short of a miracle. Those who know me know this is true. I am just a ditch digger and not highly educated.. But that has shown me how to dig up gems and jewels buried in the word of Yahweh, and not to be afraid to share them with you all.

I tell you we have not much time left. You need to get off your donkey and get to work on behalf of Yahweh. Sitting in your pew will not save you or your family. As I saw on TV there are millions of deceived and mislead people out there.

I am not looking for a following. I am not looking to start up a church. I am looking forward to putting out of business each and every false church I can find. This is why I pursue the Radio, and this is why I continue to ask you to forward me the e-mails of Family Friends and those who think they are Christians. Who have never read the bible.

Each of you can help do this. And each of you can share those things said here. Many already are.

Here are just a few comment from this week.

Shalom Brother!

Your site is full of wisdom!!!! May YHVH continue blessing you with such wisdom to continue spreading the truth around the Internet.

Shalom Brother:

I sent a glowing description of your Web site to the Christian Broadcasting station, about the informative and (I think) important topics you're offering readers. Hope other readers did the same.

I received a brochure in the mail from an Israeli messianic group (Jewish Jewels) saying 2008 is recognized by the Orthodox in Israel as the year of the Land Sabbath. It's going to cause economic turmoil if all of the farmers observe it. Naturally only a few will observe it. Didn't they spend 70 years in captivity for a previous breach of 470 years of land sabbath nonobservance, among other things, like idol worship, etc?

I'm going by what you say, that 2009-2010 is the date of the correct Land Sabbath. Please repeat your reason, or point me to one of your articles, that has it, I can't find it. On the remote Oregon coast, where I and my wife live, several small groups that keep the Feasts and the Sabbath have recently formed – a collection of misfits from half a dozen mainstream Christian churches, who had kept searching the Scriptures, or bumped into someone who influenced them to come to a Messianic gathering. Something is going on. Thanks for all you do,

One of the articles I wrote Blessed is The Peace Maker Received the following comment: I really like it. can i print it? Do you have more? Yes that was the best in my opinion that I have come across

Hi Joe,

This is just by way of thank you for another interesting letter, including the map of migrations of the tribes.

OK I have had my rant for the month. Brethren please forward those e-mail or get them to subscribe to this newsletter. I am looking for 144,002 and also the innumerable multitude that is to be martyred. All of them need to be educated and taken out of the false groups.

Last week we hit 1287 that receive this News Letter. You can check each week by going to the Forum and with each newsletter is the following in the Head Line; Post subject: Sighted Moon News Letter 5843-040 1287.

5843 is the current year after Creation.

040 is the number of News Letters sent out this year since Passover.

1287 is the number on the e-mail list. Help make this number grow.

You can also print these News Letter and Midrash (Debate in a Group setting) the many topics we have already shown you. Prove ALL Things. The Brother said it correctly above. Something is going on! Yes, Something is Happening. Question is are you going to be a part of it or just a spectator. Get involved. Share with us what you are doing and maybe others can do the same.

Joel says in the Last days I will pour out my spirit on all flesh. Yes something is happening. We have an obligation to share with all those sheep who do not know the bible those things Yahweh has shared with us. You are not to hoard it to yourself. You have been given a Talent. Do not bury it. Invest it is something, anything, but DO something.

This winter we are going to cover many prophetic messages. Once done in a chronological order the Bible once again will become alive, and not some old dusty thing on the shelf. Such as Who is the Beast. The King of The South and the King of the North. Gog and Magog and when they attack. Yes, all of this is part of the Jubilee teaching. The Jubilee is also a shadow picture of Future events. These Events.

Next week, we shall take a short detour and talk about the birth of the Messiah. Many are celebrating his birth this month. We shall show you all exactly where the Bible tells you what day He was born on and at what hour. This will remove any of the arguing about when was His birth day. The Bible does tell us very plainly. All you have to do is read it. Remember I am not that smart and I can see this, why cannot you.

2)Another brother sent this on to me.

I do not know the author of this but it is one of the best explanations of why the Almighty allows pain and suffering that I have read...

A man went to a barbershop to have his hair cut and his beard trimmed. As the barber began to work, they began to have a good conversation. They talked about so many things and various subjects. When they eventually touched on the subject of Elohim, the barber said:

"I don't believe that Yahweh exists."

"Why do you say that?" asked the customer. "Well, you just have to go out in the street to realize that Yahweh doesn't exist.

Tell me, if Yahweh exists, would there be so many sick people?

Would there be abandoned children?

If Yahweh existed, there would be neither suffering nor pain.
I can't imagine a loving Elohim who would allow all of these things."

The customer thought for a moment, but didn't respond because he didn't want to start an argument.

The barber finished his job and the customer left the shop.

Just after he left the barbershop, he saw a man in the street with long, stringy, dirty hair and an untrimmed beard.

He looked dirty and unkempt. The customer turned back and entered the barber shop again and he said to the barber:

"You know what? Barbers do not exist."

"How can you say that?" asked the surprised barber.

"I am here, and I am a barber. And I just worked on you!" "No!" the customer exclaimed. "Barbers don't exist because if they did, there would be no people with dirty long hair and untrimmed beards, like that man outside."

"Ah, but barbers DO exist! That's what happens when people do not come to me."

"Exactly!" affirmed the customer. "That's the point! Yahweh, too, DOES exist! That's what happens when people do not go to Him and don't look to Him for help. That's why there's so much pain and suffering in the world."

3) In our last New Letter we showed you two of the lost ten tribes of Israel Manasseh and Ephraim of the tribe of Joseph.

Today you can read about the Irish and where they come from at http://reluctantmessenger.com/judahs_sceptre_304.htm

This is an excellent book to have in our library.

For those of you who are of Scottish heritage I suggest the following documents...

This next site is the actual document of the Scottish Declaration of Independence that you should read.

<http://www.geo.ed.ac.uk/home/scotland/arbroath.html>

http://www.geo.ed.ac.uk/home/scotland/arbroath_english.html

To make sure you don't miss the main point I have copied the introduction for you. Notice where they came from. And remember this was written in 1320 AD.

Most Holy Father and Lord, we know and from the chronicles and books of the ancients we find that among other famous nations our own, the Scots, has been graced with widespread renown. They journeyed from Greater Scythia by way of the Tyrrhenian Sea and the Pillars of Hercules, and dwelt for a long course of time in Spain among the most savage tribes, but nowhere could they be subdued by any race, however barbarous. Thence they came, twelve hundred years after the people of Israel crossed the Red Sea, to their home in the west where they still live today.

<http://www.britam.org/hiberi.html> The Irish accounts of groups that immigrated into Ireland usually end with the Milesians from whom came part of the Scots. The Milesians are also known as Hiberi, Iberi, Gaedhal, Gaeli, and Scotti, and these are all names of various ancestors. This group was the last to arrive and considered the most numerous and dominant.

One Brother sent me the following

An amusing aside for your benefit (perhaps for Yair Davidy's) is the origin of the sobriquet 'Yankee' for our southern brothers. In old New York the Brits and Dutch wrestled for real estate and recognition, and the imperious Brits nicknamed the Dutch 'Jan Kases' (John Cheeses). The Dutch simply threw it back in their faces as the ones who said it, and it became 'Yankees'. Interesting how our foodstuffs sometimes label us eh, like 'Limeys'

And Yanks is also stated below from <http://www.britam.org/tape1a.html>

The expression "Raise up the Tribes of Jacob" and "BRIT-AM", meaning Covenant of the People, is reminiscent of Britain, the Commonwealth, and the UNION-JACK. "Jack" is short for Jacob. "The Tribes of Jacob", it says. Union Jack in Hebrew would be considered synonymous with an expression meaning Covenant of Jacob and it would be written in the same way. The U.S.A. in Modern Hebrew is called "Artsot-HaBRIT" meaning literally "Lands of the Covenant". "Yank" is a nickname for Americans. Yank means Jacob. In Hebrew dialect and in Yiddish, "Yank" is a nick-name for Jacob.

The passage of Isaiah (49;8-12) mentioned a "Brit-Am" i.e. "A COVENANT OF THE PEOPLE". A parallel passage in Isaiah 42;6 says;

"And give you for a COVENANT OF THE PEOPLE (a "Brit-Am"), for a light to the Gentiles, to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, them that sit in darkness out of the prison house".

Here a Covenant of the People is associated with the freeing of prisoners. Also in the previously-quoted passage concerning "Brit-Am" (i.e. "Covenant of the People" in Hebrew) the release of prisoners was mentioned "...Say to the prisoners, go forth, to they that sit in darkness, shew yourselves". A freeing of the prisoners was mentioned together with inheriting desolate heritages and a return from afar, from the north and the west and from the land of Sinim. In the early days of the settlement of Australia and North America the freeing of prisoners was important.

And from Brit-Am.org I got this additional information in relation to last week's English.

2. Does AEGEL meaning "Ephraim" represents BOTH the UK and USA??

At the meeting mentioned above, Rabbi Feld pointed out that in Chinese the word "Yank" (for American) is rendered as "eagle".

The USA is represented by an eagle.

The symbol of Ephraim is a bull-calf called "aegel" in Hebrew:

[Jeremiah 31:18] I HAVE SURELY HEARD EPHRAIM BEMOANING HIMSELF THUS; THOU HAST CHASTISED ME, AND I WAS CHASTISED, AS A BULLOCK [Hebrew: AEGEL i.e. young bull] UNACCUSTOMED TO THE YOKE: TURN THOU ME, AND I SHALL BE TURNED; FOR THOU ART THE LORD MY GOD. The word used for "young bull" (i.e. "bullock") in Hebrew is "AEGEL". The word "aegel" in Ashkenazic Hebrew could be pronounced as "Angle".

Historically in Europe this very name "Aegel" was a diminutive (favorite nickname) for the ethnic term "Angle".

The Angles gave England (i.e. "Angle-land") its name.

"England" may be understood to mean "Land of the Bull-Calf" and the English (and British in general?) are nicknamed "John Bull".

Together with the Saxons, Jutes, Vandals, and others the Angles conquered from the Celts the land that was later named England.

The Angles were also called "Aegels". The appellations "Angle" and "Aegel" were employed interchangeably.

The Hebrew word for young bull is "Aegel".

Rashi (Rabbi Shlomo Yistchaki 1040-1105 CE) was the foremost Medieval Jewish Commentator. In commenting on this verse (Jeremiah 31;18) Rashi states that the Hebrew word "Aegel" (Young Bull) was a name applied to Ephraim.

This was another name applied to the English.

The English now nickname themselves "John Bull".

This is an important point: the verse is strongly indicating that the English (Angles) are to be identified with Ephraim. see the Brit-AM Commentary to The Book of Jeremiah:

<http://britam.org/jeremiah1.html>

or

<http://www.britam.org/>

Scroll down to "BIBLICAL COMMENTARY" (on the left hand side) then JEREMIAH.

The USA is represented by an eagle

. The English word "eagle" transliterated into HEBREW LETTERS

[AYIN-GIMEL-LAMED] can be spelt exactly the same way as the Hebrew word:

AEGEL

[AYIN-GIMEL-LAMED].

In English this may not mean very much. In Hebrew exegesis however similarity in the spelling of words nearly always indicates a linkage in the essence of the subjects represented by the words.

To learn of the history of France Norway, Finland, Iceland and how they are all descended from Israel you can go to <http://britam.org/> and search your own history.

The truth will stun you and the search will be amazing. I will let each of you do your research. Half the fun is in the discovering for yourself. Write me what you learn.

Shalom.
